

FREELANCER - CONCENTRATED TECHNOLOGY

A real success since its launch, the freelancer collection boldly explores design and metals. A subtle reminder of the spirit of independence at the origin of RAYMOND WEIL's creation, freelancer displays open lines with a sleek geometry. Titanium, skilfully blending character and refinement, provides a daring alternative in this collection.

With its finely honed horns and straight lines, the new freelancer chronograph offers a real concentration of design and performance. Projecting pushers and polished screw heads are some of the details making this watch a totally technical machine.

The new freelancer chronograph shows a metallic face, punctuated with shades of grey; this mezzo piano of power and elegance beats to the rhythm of a mechanical automatic winding movement, equipped with the chronograph function. Orange-coloured notes, making a forceful impression, highlight the chronograph hand in the centre, as well as those of the hour and minute counters.

The slate-grey dial of the titanium freelancer offers the day date window at 3 o'clock, and a circular tachymeter scale. The ensemble is housed in an imposing, round, 45mm-diameter titanium case, fitted with a screw-down, transparent back, providing risk-free immersion to 10 ATM

A brown, calfskin strap with a folding titanium clasp including a double pusher safety system complete this flawless piece.

Notes to Editors:

RAYMOND WEIL

Founded in Geneva in 1976, RAYMOND WEIL is one of the last remaining Swiss independent family-owned and family-operated watchmaking companies. Based in Geneva, home of Switzerland's most prestigious watchmakers and of the industry's topmost expertise in component and material supply, the Brand enjoys a unique position in the exclusive world of luxury with a collection of refined timepieces that embody an elegant and contemporary blend of elements inspiring emotions with both customers and partners.

Music has always been at the centre of the RAYMOND WEIL universe. This is borne out by the names of the Brand's collections — taken from famous operas such as nabucco and parsifal, or with musical connotations, such as maestro or jasmine — and the various musical partnerships RAYMOND WEIL has signed with iconic musical venues, exclusive musical awards ceremonies, live music platforms and music related charities.

Emotions, precision, performance: these are the values common to music and watchmaking that RAYMOND WEIL wishes to share with its clients.
